(Required) sections refer to the regulations governing School Councils under O. Reg 612/00

School Name:

School Council By-laws
were adopted on:

School year

The HWDSB School Council By-laws indicates required practices related to School Council. All School Councils must follow the required School Council by-laws indicated below.

Each School Council has the ability to create school specific by-laws. Any school specific by-law must be in alignment with O. Reg 612/00, the required HWDSB School Council Bylaws, the HWDSB Code of Conduct, and the HWDSB Human Rights Policy.

The HWDSB School Council Guide provides a more detailed outline of recommended practices related to the successful running of School Council. For an overview of School Councils please see the HWDSB School Council Guide.

Section 1.01 Interpretation

The term “board” refers to the Hamilton-Wenworth District School Board.

The term “parent” is intended to be inclusive and represent the parent, guardian, family, and caregiver.

A School Council is defined by O. Reg 612/00.

A Home & School Association is an independent organization that is governed by the Ontario Federation of Home & School Associations.

Section 1.02 Introduction

The Education Act and Ontario Regulation 612/00 identify “The purpose of school councils is, through the active participation of parents, to improve pupil achievement and to enhance the accountability of the education system to parents ... by making recommendations ...to the principal of the school...”. O. Reg 612/00, s 2.(1), (2)

The Regulation also states that school councils may make by-laws governing the conduct of its affairs.

A school council must have by-laws for the following areas:

1. That governs parent election procedures and the filling of vacancies in the membership of the council.
2. Establishes rules for participation in council proceedings in cases of conflict of interest.

3. A by-law that, in accordance with any applicable policies established by the board that established the council, establishes a conflict resolution process for internal school council disputes

Section 1.03 Membership (Required)

Council shall be composed of:

- a. The HWDSB maximum number of parent members of School Council is 30. An individual School Council may set a local by-law of a lower number of parent members.
- b. One teacher employed in the school, to be elected by the teaching staff of the school.
- c. One person who is employed at the school, other than the principal or vice-principal or any other teacher designated by the school staff.
- d. The Principal or designate (as a non-voting member).
- e. One community representative appointed by the elected Council, where feasible.

A Member shall exclude themselves from discussions and/or votes where:

- A conflict of interest is likely to result.
- The Member's ability to carry out duties and responsibilities as a Member of School Council may be jeopardized.
- The Council Member, relatives, or a business entity in which the Member may have an interest, may gain or benefit either directly or indirectly as a result of actions that may be taken by the Principal or board in response to advice that the Council provides to the Principal or board.
- A Member shall not accept favours or economic benefits from any individual organizations, or entities known to be seeking business contracts with the school.
- It is up to each individual to make this declaration, rather than the Council deciding on someone's behalf.

Local School Council By-law (optional):

- 1.
- 2.

Section 1.13 Conflict Resolution (Required)

General Principles

The intent of this section is to provide a process for resolving conflict between school council members, members and chairs/co-chairs, or school council and administration that affects the function and/or the physical or social environment of the council.

It is the intent of this process to encourage school council members to resolve conflicts and foster good will through direct dialogue whenever possible, before following this formal resolution procedure.

It is also the intent of this process to keep relations between the school and school council constructive so that parents/council members can carry out its purpose.

This process is intended to work in tandem with existing laws and regulations including the Employment Standards Act and the Human Rights Act, and not to supersede those laws or any policies of the HWDSB.

Additional resources available include:

- HWDSB Code of Conduct Policy and Procedure
- HWDSB Human Rights Complaint Resolution Procedure
- HWDSB Whistleblower Policy and Procedure

Section 1.14 Conflict Resolution Procedure (Required)

The process outlined below explains who is responsible for resolving conflicts and the steps to follow when issues arise within the School Council.

1. Who Is Responsible

- Chair: Leads the process if conflict occurs between School Council members.
 - Principal: If the Chair cannot resolve the conflict, the Principal will attempt to find a resolution
 - Family of Schools Superintendent: Consulted if the Principal cannot resolve the conflict or if the conflict involves the Principal.
- Alternate Executive Member: Leads the process if the conflict involves the Chair or Co-Chairs.
- Superintendent: Leads the process if the conflict is between the Principal and School Council members.

2. Steps to Resolve Conflicts

Step 1: Try to Resolve the Issue

- The Chair/Designate meets with the members involved to find a solution.
 - If the Chair/Designate cannot resolve the issue, the Principal will try.
 - If the Principal cannot resolve the issue, the Family of Schools Superintendent will be consulted.

Step 2: If Someone Is Disruptive During a Meeting

- The Chair will ask the person to stop the disruptive behavior.
- If the behavior continues, the Chair will ask the person to leave the meeting. This does not prevent them from attending future meetings.

Step 3: Follow the HWDSB Code of Conduct

- The HWDSB Code of Conduct applies to all situations.
- The Principal makes sure everyone follows the Code of Conduct.
- If someone does not follow the Code, the Principal may ask them to leave and will investigate the issue. The Principal will consult the Superintendent. If the violation is confirmed, the person may not be allowed to attend future meetings.

Step 4: Human Rights Complaints

- When appropriate, members may use the HWDSB Human Rights Complaint Resolution Procedure.

Section 1.15 Annual Report (Required)

- a. The Council shall annually submit a written report of its activities to the Principal of the school.
- b. The Principal will provide a copy of the annual report to the Family of Schools Superintendent.
- c. If the School Council engages in fundraising activities, the annual report shall include a report on those activities.
- d. The Principal shall, on behalf of the Council, make a copy of the report available to every parent of a student who is enrolled in the school. The report will be posted to the school website and a paper copy made available in the school office.

Local School Council By-law (optional):

- 1.
- 2.

Section 1.16 By-law Review

Required School Council By-laws ensure compliance with Ontario Regulation 612/00 and cannot be amended. These required by-laws will be reviewed on a three-year cycle to confirm continued alignment with legislation and HWDSB policies and procedures.

Local School Council By-laws must comply with all Ontario Ministry regulations and guidelines related to school councils, as well as HWDSB policies and procedures. Local by-laws are recommended to be reviewed at a minimum every four years, or earlier if circumstances require.

Amendments to Local School Council By-laws may be made with a two-thirds majority vote of the elected Members present at a meeting of the Council.

Once approved, all School Council by-laws will be posted to the school website.
